HEBREWS 8

1. Since there are commands to obey in Christianity, how does it differ from being under the Law?

2. The Temple of Israel was a model or shadow of Heavenly things. The Hebrews could see and touch the Temple something they couldn't do with Heavenly things. Why do we tend to gravitate towards a material expression of our faith (buildings, lighting candles, making a pilgrimage to a location we think of as being holy) rather than a simple expression of worship based on faith?

3. Christ has completed the putting away of our sins and is now seated. What do you believe is the biggest obstacle that keeps people from embracing God's grace and being set free from guilt? How and when did an understanding of grace break forth upon your mind and heart?
