1 JOHN 3:1-3

1. The New Testament is filled with Scriptures concerning how unfathomable God's love for us is. So why do we so often see the Church promoting an angry uncaring God?

2. Paul had prayed for the Ephesians that they would know the extent of God's love for them. When did you finally understand how much God loved you? What were the circumstances that caused you to understand?

3. The idea of Christ's return should produce a greater degree of purity in the life of the Christian. Why are Christians so enamored with Biblical prophecy, and yet they do not seem to apply it to their lives?

4. If we're forgiven at the cross, why do we still need to ask to be forgiven?
