PSALM 100

1. How would you counsel someone who has experienced hardship and now doubts that God is good?
2. Why do you believe that Christians miss the truth that God has given so much but He demands so little in return?
3. What do you think has caused such a rapid departure within our culture, that so many now believe that Christianity played little or no part in the founding of our Nation?
4. What were the circumstances of the moment when you knew that you belonged to God and that He had chosen you for no other reason than He just loved you?
